

MARIE-ROGER BILOA

Biography_EN

A Media Executive and TV producer, Mrs Marie Roger Biloa is both the CEO and the Founder of Africa International Media Group. For over twenty years, the Group published « Africa International », a political magazine, and trained dozens of African journalists. Whereafter it launched common-concern papers such as « ICI- Les Gens du Cameroun/ HERE- People from Cameroon » in 2002 and « ICI- Les Gens du Gabon/ HERE- People from Gabon » that achieve immense success.

Produced by MRB Productions, « MRB Networks » (mrb-networks.com) started in 2019. This information/knowledge based TV program that covers major issues of interest for Africa is in partnership with the main public and private TV channels in West and Central Africa.

Fluent in French, English and German, Mrs. Biloa is an award-winner that attended Harvard University. She is also the very first Journalist in France to interview Nelson Mandela after he was released from jail in 1990. Throughout her career, she met and interacted with a large number of African and world leaders, and she was often a talk show TV guest in Europe and Africa (TV5 Monde, France Television, ARTE, BFMTV, Aljazeera, BBC, ZDF, ARD, ...)