

ANTONIO HENRIQUES DA SILVA

Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Angola agency for private investment and exports promotion (AIPEX).

A senior executive with more than 22 years of experience in various sectors of private and public business activity, from Petroleum and Gas, Telecommunications, television and Manufacturing. Visionary and creative, with a positive attitude and firm commitment to excellence.

He has experience in Organizational Change Management to achieve the best results, with an open and entrepreneurial leadership style, highly effective in planning, negotiation and communication skills, as well as approach oriented towards finding solutions for the problems of organizations. Professional career : he was an IT Systems Administrator at Texaco 1997-1999.

Served as Coordinator of the IT team implementation of the project at the beginning and Commercial and Marketing Director, International Investments of the first Angolan GSM Standard Mobile Telephone Operator UNITEL SA 1999-2010.

Served as the first Board of Directors of the Angola Public Television (TPA) from 2010 to 2012. Developed entrepreneurship activities in the private sector with the creation of several start up companies with highlight to VIGORCALIMA Lda, from 2013-2015. Appointed from 2017-2018 as President of APIEX- Investment and Export Promotion Agency of Angola, end of 2015 early 2017.

