

Didier Acouetey

Didier ACOUETEY is the CEO of the AfricaSearch Group which specializes in talent detection and human resources management for Africa.

He is an active member within several organizations that work for the development of Africa and promote the « Youth Excellence Program » that trains young African leaders. He also founded the first Africa-Southeast Asia Chamber of Commerce based in Singapore.

In 2014, partnering with the African Development Bank, African Guaranteed Fund, Ecobank and SFI, he launched Africa SME Champions Forum, the 1st African SMEs financing forum.

To top it all, Didier Acouetey is a columnist on Radio France International (RFI) on the issues of Training-Employment and business creation in Africa.