

Didier ACOUETÉY

Didier ACOUETÉY preside the AfricSearch Group, a firm specializing in human resources management in Africa. The company operates with offices across the continent and is associated with Alexander Hughes, having a global presence. Active in African development, he co-founded the first Africa-Asia-Southeast Asia Chamber of Commerce in Singapore and initiated the Africa SME Champions Forum with key partners to fund African SMEs. He is a columnist at Radio France International on topics of education, employment, and entrepreneurship in Africa. Didier ACOUETÉY holds an MBA from the École Supérieure de Commerce de Paris and has completed advanced management programs at several international universities.