

Richard Evina Obam

Richard Evina Obam, born on April 24, 1968, in Douala, Cameroon, holds degrees in public law and public administration. His career includes roles in tax administration, such as Chief of Division for Large Enterprises at the DGI. He has also served as a technical advisor at Minfi, and as an administrator for SCB Cameroon and SNI. From 2017 to 2023, he led the CAA, before becoming the CEO of the new Caisse des dépôts et consignations du Cameroun in January 2023.