

OTTONIEL DOS SANTOS

Since February 2021, Mr. Santos has been serving as the Secretary of State for Finance and Treasury, overseeing various departments within the Ministry of Finance and public financial entities. Prior to this role, he led the Angola Stock Exchange (BODIVA) from 2019 to 2021, working on its transformation into a public enterprise and market surveillance. With a degree in economics from the Catholic University of Angola in 2006, he possesses extensive experience in the Angolan financial markets through various positions, including his role as Director-General at the Capital Market Commission from 2016 to 2019.