

Dr. Albert Zeufack is a Cameroonian economist with over 30 years of experience in economic development and finance. He is currently the Director of Operations at the World Bank for Angola, Burundi, DR Congo, and São Tomé and Príncipe. He is a former World Bank Chief Economist for Africa and Director of Research at Khazanah Nasional Berhad. He is known for his involvement in the Grand Inga Dam project. Founder of CEOG, he is also an international speaker and author of more 50 scientific publications. Dr. Zeufack graduated in Economic Sciences at CERDI in Clermont-Ferrand, and has completed studies at Harvard, Michigan, and Stanford.