

M. Hamet Aguemon began his career in 2003 in London with Koch Supply and Trading and EDF Trading, focusing on risk management and commodity trading. In 2008, he joined Goldman Sachs to oversee operations in Sub-Saharan Africa. From 2012 to 2014, he led VTB Capital in Africa, securing over $3 billion in financing. In 2014, he founded Emerging Africa Investment Partners and Khulatech, the it was Southbridge in 2017, a pan-African institution. In 2021, he became Investment Advisor to the Government of Benin, prior to founding Hodari Holding, which invests in various innovative projects in Africa.