

Luís Filipe Lopes Tavares is an expert in local development and geopolitics. He holds a master's degree in economic geography and several diplomas in local development and politics. He has held various positions in the Cape Verdean public administration, including Director General of Decentralization and Advisor to the Prime Minister. He led several projects funded by international organizations and has been a consultant for UNDP and the European Union. Decorated Knight of the National Order of Merit in 2008, he was also Minister of Foreign Affairs and Defense of Cape Verde, then he devoted himself to on international consultation since 2022.