

Mrs Massandjé TOURE-LITSE holds an MBA in International Finance from George Washington University and began her career at the World Bank in Washington DC. Back to Ivory Coast, she held various roles in both the private and public sectors, including technical advisor to the Minister of Foreign Affairs and the Prime Minister. She led the coffee-cocoa sector as Chair of the Management Committee and later as General Manager of the Coffee and Cocoa Council. In April 2020, she became Director of Partnerships and International Cooperation at the Ministry of Rice Promotion, and in July 2022, she was appointed Commissioner for Economic Affairs and Agriculture at ECOWAS. She was decorated Officer of the National Order of the Republic of Ivory Coast.