

Myriam Ferran has been Deputy Director General of the Directorate General for International Partnerships (DG INTPA) since 2021. She holds degrees in European law (ULB) and agricultural engineering. Previously, she headed the strategies for Turkey at DG NEAR and held various positions related to EU enlargement. She was also a member of the cabinet of Olli Rehn, Commissioner for Enlargement. Prior to the EU, she worked in several French ministries, notably as deputy head of cabinet to Environment Minister Dominique Voynet.