

Dr. Edoh Kossi AMENOUNVE has been the General Manager of the Regional Stock Exchange (BRVM) since 2012 and a member of the NASDAQ Exchange Review Council since 2021. He has played a key role in financial market reforms within the West African Economic and Monetary Union (WAEMU) and is recognized for his expertise in finance across Africa. He has also led the Central Depository/Clearing Bank (DC/BR) and has chaired several African financial institutions. Holding a Ph.D. in Finance from Laval University, he is regarded as one of the continent's most influential financiers.