

A scholar and journalist, Seidik Abba is a specialist in the Sahel and the Lake Chad basin. Former editor-in-chief at Jeune Afrique and head of the Paris office of Panapress, he has chaired the International Center for Reflection and Studies on the Sahel (CIRES) since January 2024. He has written several works on jihadism, of which Journeys to the heart of Boko Haram and Mali/Sahel: our own Afghanistan?. He was awarded the Media Leadership Award in 2022 at the Rebranding Africa Forum in Brussels.