

M. Ngueto Yambaye has been the General Manager of the African Guarantee and Economic Cooperation Fund (FAGACE) since July 2020, where he implemented an ambitious strategic plan, increasing guarantees from 380 billion to 1,500 billion FCFA. Former Minister of Economy and Planning of Chad, he orchestrated the National Development Plan 2017-2021 and advocated for security-development reconciliation in the G5 Sahel. He also served as Executive Director of the IMF for Africa and as Governor of several multilateral financial institutions. Holding a Ph.D. in Economics, he has received numerous accolades.